

Technology Transfer Office

What are the rights of co-inventors?

Joint ownership is implicit where there are co-inventors. However, the University and CSURF leave it to the inventors to decide and agree between (among) themselves how net royalties due the inventors will be divided. In the absence of written instructions to the contrary, CSURF will distribute the inventors net royalties equally between (among) the parties.