

Technology Transfer Office

---

What about copyrights and copyrightable materials?

In general, the University copyright policy follows the intent and guidelines of the patent policy with regard to rights, equity and ownership except for the publication of textbooks. Royalties derived from textbook publication shall be the sole property of the author(s). Assistance and information relative to copyrighting University material should be obtained from VPRIT or CSURF.